

One of the most effective methods of evangelism is that of raising up preachers and teachers throughout the world.

Jesus made the statement “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest” (Luke 10:2). At Truth for Today World Mission School, it is our continuing prayer that the Lord will give us partners and fellow servants as we seek to send His gospel into all the world.

What does TFTWMS need? Monthly contributions are needed. Many have assisted in this way, and their support has made a great impact upon this work. Other donors have given gifts that will provide for the future of the work. This avenue of giving provides funds that can be used during our lifetimes and beyond. Gifts set aside like this may even serve until Jesus comes again. One way donations can be reserved for world evangelism is for TFTWMS to be included in estate planning. It is very important for Christians to think about tomorrow as well as what can be done today. Let us remember that one day, maybe sooner than we think, we will no longer need our possessions or savings.

We can prayerfully plan in such a way that the Lord’s work will continue with our help through what we are leaving behind.

“Whatever you ask in My name, that will I do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask Me anything in My name, I will do it” (John 14:13, 14).

Join us in fulfilling the great challenge of reaching out into all the world.

We ask you to do the following . . .

- Pray for our present work and our plans for the future.
- Consider sending a personal contribution to Truth for Today World Mission School.
- Encourage your elders to remember this work when they plan the church’s budget for the coming year.
- Think about including TFTWMS in your long-range estate planning.

“For you have been born again not of seed which is perishable but imperishable, that is, through the living and enduring word of God. For, ‘All flesh is like grass, and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls off, but the word of the Lord endures forever.’ And this is the word which was preached to you” (1 Peter 1:23–25).

Truth for Today World Mission School (TFTWMS) aspires to send the Word of the Lord to the nations of the earth until Christ comes again. Biblical materials are being prepared and mailed internationally to teachers and preachers. The result is that those who are willing to preach to their own people have the necessary resources to win souls for Christ. American congregations of the Lord’s church support 871 US missionaries in 106 different countries according to statistics from Missions Resource Network for 2013. TFTWMS supplies 33,000 national teachers and preachers in 145 nations with instructional materials they need in order to maintain a missionary effort to their own people. Last year TFTWMS sent out over half a million Bible-teaching books.

Today’s Missionary Outreach

TFTWMS is often the only source the national preacher has in assembling a library of resources for teaching the gospel. This effort to fulfill the Great Commission of our Savior is possible because of the purposeful giving of many dedicated Christians.

Sending Bible materials to those who hunger and thirst for the Scriptures has been the task of TFTWMS since 1989. Each month a new edition of scriptural studies is produced. Twelve publications are mailed out regularly each year; mailings occur four times a year with three issues per mailing. The studies are reliable and responsible, emphasizing the basic teachings in each page of the Bible.

Our Indigenous Approach

We are convinced that expository studies cross cultural boundaries better than any other type of literature. TFTWMS has consistently mailed in-depth studies by talented writers on the books of the Bible. For the most part, the recipients are preachers and teachers of the Word whose work is indigeneous. This approach to teaching is a faithful application of the New Testament pattern for evangelism and edification. We are concerned with growing and strengthening servants for the Lord who will continue to preach regardless of what happens in the United States.

“The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God stands forever” (Isaiah 40:8).

Jesus taught us to live by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God. Those words come to us in written form, in the Bible. The New Testament is our standard for living, salvation, and doctrine. We are to preach it to all the world.

Truth for Today World Mission School is seriously and efficiently sending Bible materials to far parts of the world. Preachers who wish to proclaim the gospel of Christ can receive an international printed preacher school. Each month materials are prepared to be shipped to those who are teaching others. The materials are expository Bible studies which cover the Old and New Testaments and special topical studies.

The Gospel Is for All

TFTWMS sends biblical literature to some who are not members of the Lord's church. The strategy is that they will learn the error of the doctrines of men and turn to the doctrine of Christ. This approach has worked well for a new convert in Honduras. In a portion of a letter to TFTWMS, he says, “I want to thank you for all the material you have sent which is a great help since 2001. I have my own library where I keep my material and because I am very studious and used the material I was able to understand the doctrine of Jesus. I was a preacher from a denomination called ‘The Prophecy’ and was well known in that institution.”

A denominational recipient in Cuba writes: “I want to communicate that I have received all the material you have sent and I am using it in the church as our basic studies of Christian doctrine. I wish you many blessings from God.” It is our great hope that this man and his entire congregation will soon become New Testament Christians through their continuing studies.

Another letter from a congregation of the Lord's church in Cuba reads: “Dear Brothers and Sisters from Truth for Today, I hope you are well spiritually and physically as you receive this letter. We are working a lot doing God's work preaching in streets, homes and hospitals. We gather in my home, God's church on Sundays (first day of the week), and Wednesdays. On the rest of the days we visit the sick and study in their homes, which is a great blessing. To this day there has been sixty baptisms for the forgiveness of sins. We are working with forty Catholics to become part of the Lord's church. The studies arrive without a problem through our sister from Panama. Thank you dear brothers and sisters from North America, we need them very much for the work being done in Cuba. May God bless you and prosper.”

Truth for Today World Mission School provides written Bible-study material wherever it is requested in the world. Your help makes this possible.

Resources on the Internet

Since its beginning, TFTWMS has provided Bible-study opportunity for preachers, individuals, and congregations in the United States. Bible students wishing to find articles of interest online may enter the address www.biblecourses.com to visit the TFTWMS website. The site has been in operation since 1998 and now offers 21,145 lessons in 17 languages for worldwide use. Currently, people from 175 nations and territories of the world are coming regularly to our website for help in their study of the Scriptures. Last year 43,412 individuals visited the website a total of 105,248 times.

The Truth for Today World Mission School website includes 4,310 textual and topical studies in English. Also included are books, personal work methods, study helps, common Bible questions, newsletters, and devotionals. In addition, information can be obtained about the primary focus of TFTWMS and how donated funds are used.

Under construction now is an online biblical school. This online reading-based Bible study school will offer a scholarly study of the entire Bible using the Truth for Today Commentary series. Plans include having studies on the entire New Testament available in English and French. Students will be able to access all materials online at throughthescriptures.com. This site is projected to open in the fall and has the potential to take the gospel message to anyone in the world with Internet connections. Details will be described in future newsletters.

An Adaptation for the US

The Reading-based School of Biblical Studies has been in place since 2010. The school offers a free college-level education in the Scriptures to foreign preachers and teachers.

Many American congregations are using the RSBS structure and its Internet convenience to establish their own personalized RSBS schools. The schools are utilizing RSBS materials as a concentrated Bible study. Various local applications include training of deacons and elders, deepening Bible knowledge for personal workers, classes for Bible teachers, and husband and wife devotional studies.
