HIGHLIGHTS

Spanish Truth for Today in Costa Rica

Our capable and enthusiastic translator of "Truth for Today," Rodrigo in Costa Rica, is translating twelve issues a year! He and his brother, who was the former translator, have helped a whole generation of preachers and teachers in Latin America with their biblical studies. Currently, we are sending a 5-part study of Judges and Ruth to over 100 preachers in the country.

To meet the requests of the members of the congregation where Rodrigo attends, he has recently built a magazine shelf or holder. He says, "Now people can see the different issues in order. . . . I believe that when people see the complete series, they will be drawn to pick up a whole series to study."
